

2012 Gingolx Music Festival “Crabfest” in Kincolith, BC will not take place

The Board of Directors of the Gingolx Arts Society regrettably announce today that Gingolx Music Festival “Crabfest” will not take place for 2012.

The success of “Crabfest” is heavily based on receipt of grants and donations. 2011 Crabfest certainly felt the economic recession, which has impacted sales for the past 2 years. We have seen a decline in attendance from festival goer’s for the past 3 years.

Festival Director Michele Stevens states, “The Board of Directors were torn about this decision to cancel 2012 Crabfest. We knew that if we moved forward with this event we could jeopardize future events due to the financial strain it may have on our Society. The best option for us is to move forward in a different direction and re-evaluate our plans for 2013 Crabfest.”

The Gingolx Arts Society is planning on hosting 3 Concerts throughout 2012 in their newly built Community Center.

The Gingolx Arts Society would like to recognize the following companies for their continuous support towards “Crabfest”.

Nisga’a Village of Gingolx

Nisga’a Lisims Government

Royal Bank of Canada

Gemma’s
