

Canada Council
for the Arts

Conseil des arts
du Canada

HOW TO SELL YOUR ART NISGA'A TRADITIONAL ARTISTS WORKSHOP

Join us for this one-day workshop on Tuesday, December 3rd. Learn the business of art, how to wholesale your work, market and sell! Find out where you stand, what is your market, if your price points are correct. Join us and share this ad with any artists you know who could benefit from a great Arts Business Workshop!

Learn from the expertise and experience of Larry Garfinkel, Native Northwest and Mike Dangeli, Nisga'a Artist. Since 1990, Larry has established and operated Native Northwest, which develops and distributes cultural merchandise. Larry has produced the works of Nisga'a artists Mike Dangeli and Todd Stephens. Mike Dangeli is a Nisga'a artist who founded the House of Culture, Art and Carving Studio in Vancouver. Mike is an exceptional artist and draws on his Nisga'a, Tlingit, Tsetsaut and Tsimshian heritage, languages and culture in his work.

When: December 3, 2013

Cost: Free!

9am – 4pm (lunch is provided)

What: Nisga'a Traditional Artists
Workshop

Call Kathryn Kervel at the WWNI
Institute to reserve your space:

250-633-2292

Where: WWNI Institute

3001 Ts'oohl Ts'ap Avenue,
Gitwinksihlkw

Space limited, call Kathryn today!

We encourage all participating artists to bring samples of their work to share during the workshop.

We acknowledge the support of the Canada Council for the Arts, which last year invested $154 million to bring the arts to Canadians throughout the country. Nous remercions le Conseil des arts du Canada de son soutien. L'an dernier, le Conseil a investi 154 millions de dollars pour mettre de l'art dans la vie des Canadiennes et des Canadiens de tout le pays.

Bringing the arts to life

De l'art plein la vie