President's Message

In the month of February we made two trips to Ottawa to meet with Federal officials from various departments to lobby the government on issues of importance to the Nisga'a Nation and to pursue our aspirations in respect of sustainable development.

We also met with our partners on the Land Claims Agreement Coalition (LCAC) in our annual leadership meeting. The Nisga'a Nation is co-chair of the LCAC and our participation is important as we are lobbying the federal government to adopt an implementation policy that will recognize a government-to-government relationship in the implementation of all modern treaties in Canada.

We continue in our efforts of pursuing our vision of sustainable prosperity to build our economy in the Nass Valley. The NLG Executive, comprised of the most senior elected officials from NLG, Nisga'a Villages and Nisga'a Urban Locals continue to receive reports. As one can appreciate, we cannot divulge the details given the privileged and confidential nature of discussions between the governments of BC, Canada and the Nisga'a Nation.

I can assure the Nisga'a Nation that we will make a report to our citizenry at our biennial Special Assembly of the Nisga'a Nation May 2-6, 2016 in Gitlaxt'aamiks. We will also continue with our periodic visits to each Nisga'a Village and Nisga'a Urban Local.

On March 14, 15 & 16, 2016, the Nisga'a Nation will be host to the BC Assembly of First Nations Special Chief's Assembly that will take place at the Laxgalts'ap Community Centre in Laxgalts'ap.

This is an event of historic proportion, as the BC AFN typically hosts its meetings in Vancouver. This will be an opportunity for the Nisga'a Nation to showcase our beautiful Nisga'a Lands, culture and hospitality to the upwards of 200 Chiefs and other guests that will accompany them.

I would like to extend a personal invitation to all of the Nisga'a Nation's Simgigat, Sigidimhaanak' and Cultural Dance groups to be in attendance in full regalia at the Cultural Day festivities on Monday March 14, 2016 to formally welcome our guests on to Nisga'a Lands in true Nisga'a fashion! Cultural Dance group leaders may contact William Moore to confirm your community group's participation.

I would like to congratulate the Nisga'a Village of Gitlaxt'aamiks for an excellent job in hosting the annual Hoobiye celebrations on February 26 & 27, 2016. It was very nice to see friends and family unite to celebrate our new season of harvest.

Maurice Squires Honoured by his Peers at Director's Forum - Indigenous Perspectives Society

Feb 10th, 2016: The Director's Forum through the Indigenous Perspectives Society (IPS) hosted an "Honoring Dinner" for Maurice Squires at the Marriott Hotel in Richmond BC. This forum is made up of all the Directors of the 20 Delegated Aboriginal Child Welfare Agencies throughout the Province that Maurice had worked with over the past 20 plus years. Maurice was recognized for his hard work and dedication as a very skilled professional who worked tirelessly to improve the quality of life and wellbeing of First Nations children provincially and nationally.

Under Maurice's leadership, the Northwest Band Social Worker's Association (NWBSWA) successfully saw over 40 First Nations social workers from Northern communities get their BSW degrees without having to travel South and become disconnected from their families and cultural responsibilities at home. 15 BSW grads from this program went on to complete their MSW degree and 1 (so far) has completed his PhD. Maurice's insight and experience was also instrumental in setting up the UNBC Social Work program that is still helping Northerners get the education they need to stay in and help their own communities.

Maurice has shown such vision and leadership for social work and child welfare throughout BC and Canada. He has dealt with Government throughout his professional career. Although much of his best work benefitted the Nisga'a Tribal Council/ Nisga'a Lisims Government, he has always worked to serve First Nations. In holding executive positions on the boards of the Caring For First Nations Children Society, the BC Child Care Society, the UNBC Board of Governors and the Northern Health Authority, Maurice has travelled extensively throughout BC, where he has contributed his culturally-informed and academically-trained analysis towards resolving the many pernicious inequities facing First Nations children and families.

Maurice was successful in negotiating copyright of the Aboriginal Social Worker Training Program curriculum and the development of the Aboriginal Operational and Practice Standards and Indicators (AOPSI).

Maurice's principled diligence when sitting across the negotiating table from the Crown during Treaty talks led to a major precedent for First Nations child welfare that is being referenced by Indigenous peoples around the world. Maurice's work to entrench inherent rights to Nisga'a based child welfare authority within the Nisga'a Final Agreement has been widely cited in legal briefs and textbooks.

Within academia, Maurice's MSW thesis has been cited numerous times. In her globally recognized book on Indigenous Methodologies, Maurice's friend, Dr Maggie Kovach quoted his statement: "If you are not solving the problem within the context of the culture, you're creating another form of assimilation." Indigenous Masters and PhD. Students from Australia and the American Southwest have cited this specific quote in their graduate theses. Maurice's words and work are truly serving Indigenous peoples at home and around the world.

Congratulations Maurice!

National Anti-Bullying Day

NLG's Human Resources Department has once again partnered with the Laxgalts'ap Village Government to provide Anti-Bullying t-shirts to participating staff of Pink Shirt Day - a national anti-bullying campaign to end bullying.

The Nisga'a Nation says Haw'it Bullying!

Motivational Speaker Mike Scott addresses Nisga'a Youth

Motivational speaker Mike Scott addressed Nisga'a Youth both in Terrace and at Nisga'a Elementary Secondary School where he shared his life experiences of various struggles that he endured and overcame. There was no censorship as directed by the Principal of the school to demonstrate to the Youth of how real and upfront life can be and some deep aspects of his story left the audience feeling the direct emotion of his story. We commend Mike on his courage to share his story and his goal to spread awareness to the issues that commonly impact Indigenous peoples.

Keith Azak, Nisga'a Urban Local Representative of Terrace was able to show Mike and his group around Terrace and around the Nass Valley. Mike also attend Day 1 of the Hoobiye festivities in Gitlaxt'aamiks and he shared that this was his first Indigenous cultural event that he attended in BC.

Si'aamhl Wilin Mike! (Continue to do well)
