

CIRCLES OF COURAGE

NLG Justice Department is offering Peace Making Circle Training

PEACE MAKING CIRCLE TRAINING

Date: March 4, 5 and 6, 2014

9 am to 5pm

Location: To be Determined

Space is Limited; only the first 20 applicants will be accepted. Participants are required to partake in the full three day training. There is no registration fee.

Includes: Course Materials
Lunch & Refreshments

To Register call Marietta McKay 250-621-3404

Faith Tait 250-633-3000 or 1-866-633-0888

Millie Percival 250-633-3012 or 1-866-633-0888

You are invited to an intensive three-day workshop to learn about Peacemaking Circles. The Circle process is used for many purposes, including dialogue, problem solving, conflict resolution, healing, and community building. Circles are used successfully in a variety of settings, such as schools, workplaces and the justice system.

Participants of this training will learn about and experience the fundamentals of Peacemaking Circles, including: foundational values & the philosophy of circle practice, structure of circle process and circle facilitation skills.

