Re: Criminal Record Checks

For Nisga'a Citizens wishing to be nominated in the upcoming December 2, 2026 By Election, the Nisga'a Elections Regulations states:

Section 14 (2(a.1))

- (b) in order to verify that the person does not have a criminal record that would disqualify them for standing for the elected office under section 15(2)(i) to (k) of the Act, file with the Nisga'a Elections Officer either*
- (i) A criminal record search completed within four months prior to the nomination period and satisfactory to the Nisga'a Elections Officer,*
- (ii) Or evidence satisfactory to the Nisga'a Elections Officer of having made application for a criminal record search report within the four months prior to the nomination period, and a solemn declaration that the person will deliver that criminal record search report to the Nisga'a Elections Officer immediately upon if completion . . .*

Please contact your local R.C.M.P. or local Police Department on the requirements of completing a prescribed Criminal Record Check.
